

Advanced Shooting Incident Reconstruction

September 11, 2023 - September 15, 2023

Atlantic City, NJ

Hosted by The New Jersey Crime Scene Investigators Association and New Jersey State Police
Presented by Highlands Forensic Investigations & Consulting

LOCATION

Stockton University

John F. Scarpa Academic Building
3711 Atlantic Avenue, Atlantic City,
NJ

Recommended hotel based on proximity to training - Tropicana Resort and Hotel

Course Fee:
NJCSIA Members
$750.00
Non-NJCSIA Members
$900.00

For Information, Questions and to Register

Contact:

Lieutenant Sarah Beninghof
732.232.1600 (cell)
Sarah.Beninghof@njsp.org

This course requires participants to have already attended a basic shooting reconstruction course

Topics Include

- Review of Basic Course Topics
- Advances in Ammunition
- Philosophy Behind a Shooting Reconstruction
- Motor Vehicle Shooting Scene Exercise
- Incorporation of Bloodstain Pattern Analysis
- The Human Body as a Target
- Incorporation of Wound Tracks
- Writing the Reconstruction Report
- Group Case Study Exercise
- Group Presentation of Reconstruction Findings

Participants are required to bring the following:

- A laptop with Microsoft Word and PowerPoint
- All Other Materials will be Provided

INSTRUCTORS:

James P. Molinaro

- Consultant, Highlands Forensic Investigations and Consulting
- Instructor, UT National Forensic Academy
- Lieutenant, New Jersey State Police (retired)

Howard J. Ryan

- Consultant, Highlands Forensic Investigations & Consulting
- Instructor, UT National Forensic Academy
- Lieutenant, New Jersey State Police (retired)