

NJAFS
NEW JERSEY ASSOCIATION OF FORENSIC SCIENTISTS

The New Jersey Association of Forensic Scientists

Presents the 2017 Spring Seminar

Off the Beaten Path: Investigating Unique Forensic Cases

The Tropicana Resort, Atlantic City, NJ

May 12, 2017 8:30 to 3:30

FEATURING

Gary L. Smith (Pennsylvania Gemological Laboratory) - "Romanov or Rip Off!"

Colette Loll (Art Fraud Insights) - "Art & Forensics: Authentication and Theft Prevention"

Dr. Ernest Rogers (Maplewood Animal Hospital) - "Review of Forensic Veterinary Medicine and it's Value to Law Enforcement."

Kathleen Friess (NJDCJ, Human Trafficking Taskforce) -

REGISTRATION FEES

*Registration includes: President's Reception Dinner on Thursday evening from 7-10pm (Top of the Trop in the South Tower), and Continental breakfast, Luncheon, breaks, supplies and certificate on Friday

*NJAFS Members: $95 NON-Members: $125 Student NJAFS Member: $50 Student NON NJAFS Member: $65 (must have valid student ID)

*Guest rate for President's Reception: $50 Guest Rate for luncheon: $40

Please register online at www.njafs.org by April 28th, 2017

*Questions? Contact Cortney MacDonald (609) 584-5054 x5436 or lpolmsc@gw.njsp.org

Overnight room reservations can be made by contacting the Tropicana Resort at 1-800-247-8767 and using the group code HNJAFS to receive a special rate of $81 plus taxes and fees for North Tower rooms. The rate applies for Thursday night, May 11th only. Reservation deadline is April 21, 2017.